

Early Bird Tuition Fees in Classical Music

JAM MUSIC LAB Conservatory's new department known as Viennese School of Music is pleased to be able to offer studies in the field of Classical Music Education from February 2018!

We're launching this innovative curriculum with our team of internationally successful lecturers, who have tailored it to the requirements of today's professional reality. Interdisciplinary and project-related work are given particular significance.

In this sense, diversity is something that we wholeheartedly embrace and we're always open to inspiration through music of different cultures and genres.

For Students of Foundation Classes for Classical Music We Offer the Following:

For the 2018 summer semester, the Early Bird Semester tuition fee for instrumental studies is €1,415, for pedagogic studies (IPG) € 1.945.

This reduced semester fee applies to the field of classical music for all students who are beginning their studies in the 2018 summer semester, and for each subsequent semester for the entire duration of their studies.

For those who plan to undertake further studies at JAM MUSIC LAB Private University, students of the classical music 2018 summer semester class, like all other students of the Conservatory, receive the JAM Card for Higher Music Education, and thus can avail of reduced-cost follow-up studies (25% off on all courses offered in bachelor and master studies, provided that relevant entrance exams are passed).

Registration for the entrance examinations are now possible:
